

Black Music Summit to Focus on Innovation, Technology & Music

Posted by Staff / 18 - Aug - 2016

The 2016 Black Music Summit will be held on Saturday, April 2nd at Langston Hughes Performing Arts Institute bringing together music stakeholders including musicians, artists, technologists, promoters, venues, media, educators, community organizers and others to discuss the music industry, innovation and future of Black music in the Central District, Seattle and beyond. The theme of the event will be "innovation" and explore the future of Black music at the intersection of art, technology and business.

Check out coverage of the 2015 Black Music Summit here.

Copyright © 2018 africatownseattle.com. All rights reserved.