

Africatown Winter Arts & Soul Fest Kicks Off

Posted by Staff / 18 - Aug - 2016

The first Annual Africatown-Central District Winter Arts & Soul Fest kicks off today in Seattle.

Africatown-Central District in partnership with Langston Hughes Performing Arts Institute, Arunga Music, Red Lounge, Black Dot, Lake Chad Cafe will host its first annual Winter Arts & Soul Fest.

The four days of festivities will highlight the neighborhoods unique African American heritage and African diaspora flavors including a special Black Friday Benefit Concert with Owuor Arunga & Friends at Langston Hughes Performing Arts Institute and the launch of a new business incubator, the Black Dot Cultural Innovation Space at Midtown Center and a Black Friday & Small Business Saturday Holiday Marketplace.

- Central Area Chamber of Commerce Thanksgiving Dinner, 2100 Bldg, 6pm
- Red Lounge presents Mighty Crown & Fire Links(Jamaica) Live in Seattle, Red Lounge 1212 E. Jefferson St., 9pm

Friday, Nov. 27th

- Africatown Black Friday Holiday Marketplace at Langston Hughes Performing Arts Institute, 104 17th Ave. S.
- Black Friday Concert & Marketplace featuring Owuor Arunga & Friends . Langston Hughes Performing Arts Institute, 104 17th Ave. S. Market Place opens at 12 noon. Doors for concert open at 6:30pm.

Proceeds will benefit youth leadership development and arts programming.

Africatown-Central District Winter Music & Arts Fest

Wed Nov. 25 - Sat. Nov. 28, 2015

Multiple Venues in Africatown-Central District For more information visit AfricatownSeattle.com email or call 206.941.2527.

Africatown-Winterfest-Schedule

