

Africatown Launches Affordable Housing Podcast

Posted by The Big O / 03 - Dec - 2018

“The Lease Up” highlights Liberty Bank Building’s Success

The first episode of The Lease Up was released earlier this week and features Africatown Community Land Trust Board Member, Sherry Collier, who explains to listeners what a community land trust is and the role the ACLT played in the Liberty Bank Building.

Future episodes will feature interviews from community leaders and historians, development partners, as well as future tenants and business owners that are moving into the building. The Lease Up will also offer advice and resources for those seeking affordable housing options.

For more information visit www.AfricatownSeattle.com

Copyright © 2019 africatownseattle.com. All rights reserved.