Black Dot Master Class series invites you to join us on Thursday March 7, 2019 at 6pm and learn some strategies that will help you build your credit without having to generate additional debt with credit expert, Fiscal Finesse.

Finesse has helped hundreds of individuals to improve their credit score, save money, eliminate debt and create successful budgets for their households and businesses. Become a homeowner, lower your interest rates and increase your savings account in 2019 with this workshop.

She has been coaching, leading, educating, advising, facilitating and consulting for more than 17 years. She has worked for Corporate America, Non-Profit as well as State and Federal Government agencies and became an Entrepreneur with Financial COMFORT Consulting LLC in 2009.

Jenefeness received a Bachelor of Science degree in Communications and Operations Management from Wilberforce University and then soon after a Master degree in Business Administration from Ohio Dominican University. She has gone from receiving less than $300 a month in welfare benefits to grossing mid-six figures annually by Living on Less (LOL). She currently enjoys teaching the same algorithms to her former students at UCONN, Franklin University and WSU as well as growing clientele in 17 of the 50 states in the US and three other countries through one-on-one technical assistance, seminars, her podcast Fiscal Finesse University and in her books Finesse My Life, Finesse My Time Management, Finesse My Budget and Finesse My Finances.
